Dear Mr. Buckner,

Thank you for your call this morning clarifying the reason for terminating your Paging Interconnection Agreement with BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc. d/b/a AT&T South Carolina. In my letter to you dated September 30, 2008, I stated that your company had gone out of business. I appreciate you informing me that you have moved your services to another carrier that could better meet your needs and that you are still in business.

Your agreement will be terminated when it expires on October 30, 2008.

If you have any question, please call me at (404) 927-7217.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Buckner,

In an effort to maintain a current Interconnection Agreement on file between Radio Communications of Charleston, Inc. and BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc. d/b/a AT&T South Carolina, ("AT&T"), I notified you of the need to negotiate a new agreement. In subsequent conversations with Robert Hurst, I was informed that Radio Communications of Charleston, Inc. has gone out of business and that you would like to have your agreement terminated.

This letter is to inform you that your agreement is being terminated and the appropriate commission will be notified of the termination.

If you have any question, please call me at (404) 927-7217.

Sincerely,
